state, and jewel presented to the Commandery at Howard by the Commandery, can be seen in the window of Fred J. Stilson, on Whitehall street.

A Word About Mr. Thornton.

EDITOR'S NOTE: It is with some degree of diffidence that I address you upon the subject matter herein contained, but the circumstances duly warrant what I am about to say.

G. W. ADAIR, AUCTIONEER.

26 VACANT LOTS

IN

WEST END

O' TUESDAY, 20TH JUNE, 1882, AT 4 O'CLOCK

p.m. sharp, I will sell, on the premises, 26 unimproved lots on Beecher and Ashby streets, very near Lee street, and very near the street car line, each lot 50x200. The property is on a high healthy hill, being a very choice site, and nicely shaded.

Each lot will be sold with the privilege of the joining lot. Plans are at my office, and will be free of charge. Five lots on West End street, each

50x200, and five lots on West End street, each

50x200,

CITY NEWS.

THE REGULAR RECORD OF CURRENT LOCAL EVENTS.

The Daily Record of Current Local Events. The Record of the Courts, the Railroads and Hotels—Capitol Building—Real Estate Operations—Improvements—Deaths of All Kinds.

Picnics are common now. The streets were crowded with people yesterday.

Colonel Callahan will hold the court of ordinary to-morrow. All Railroad to Roswell, Wednesday next.

Tuesday is sheriff sale day. There is a large amount of property to be sold. Only 70 cents to Roswell next Wednesday.

Mr. Sanders Jones's horse, buggy and harness will be raffled at the Kimball Wednesday night.

Wednesday will be the day for the regular monthly meeting of the board of commissioners of roads and rivers.

Fine fishing at Roswell, Wednesday next.

Mrs. L. B. Whitson, of Stone Mountain, has written an interesting little book about Augusta's industries.

All kinds of amusements at Roswell next Wednesday.

Professor Agostini and his scholars will give a hop next Friday night, complimentary to Mr. Henry Robinson, their pianist.

See advertisement of First Baptist Sunday-school picnic to Roswell, Wednesday next. Tickets at Passenger Depot.

Hendrix & McBurney, real estate agents, have a big sale of forty-three lots on Jackson street, corner Line, to-morrow afternoon, very desirable property. On Wednesday afternoon they will sell the Hubbert farm, fourteen large fine lots.

Trinity Sunday-school did a wise thing in selecting Powder Springs as a place to picnic to next Saturday, June 10th. The harbor there is large enough to accommodate the whole school.

S. A. E., Grand Annual Convention. The great annual convention of the S. A. E. fraternity, the largest and best known college order in the southern states, will be held in Augusta, Ga., on 25th June. The attendance will be exceedingly large.

Mr. George Leonard Chaney's Last Sermon. Mr. Chaney will preach once more in Atlanta, in Concordia hall, at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Chaney leaves for Boston during the week, and this will be his last sermon. The opportunity to hear him will not be neglected.

An Error Corrected. Mrs. C. I. Brown sends THE CONSTITUTION the following, which is published with pleasure:

ENTIRE CONSTITUTION: In your last Sunday's paper (25th of May), you stated that Mrs. C. I. Brown accompanied a picnic party to Louisville on the 27th. I did not go, as so many people think I went, please correct the mistake, and excuse me for troubling you.

Very respectfully, Mrs. C. I. Brown.

Before the Commissioner. Yesterday James McDaniel, of Fulton county, was before Commissioner W. B. Smith, charged with retailing tobacco without license. He was required to give bond for his appearance before the district court. H. H. Smith and William A. Smith, charged with conspiracy to defraud a witness, gave bond for their appearance Tuesday for a further hearing. They are held from Fulton county.

Nearly a Fatal Fall. About noon yesterday little Wade Harding, son of J. E. Harding, met with a serious accident at his father's home on Marietta street. In the rear of the second story of the building there is a small porch, about 20 feet from the ground. Upon this the little fellow was standing leaning against the box nailed against the side of the house when the nails gave way and he fell to the ground. In falling his head struck against the brick wall, causing a bad gash. When picked up he was in an unconscious condition and at a late hour last night there were great doubts of his recovery.

Atlanta's Paved Streets. Yesterday the first block was laid on Alabama street. There was a present quite a crowd, and the whole affair was quite a memorable event. The first block was put down by Mr. John Berkeley, the chairman of the street commission. This was followed by one in the hands of Mr. William Venable, the secretary of the commission, and Mr. Maher, the third member of the commission, deposited the first block. After these gentlemen of the streets came Mayor English, Alderman Lowry, chairman of the finance committee; City Engineer Clayton, Chief of Fire Department, Kirtland, each with a stone. These gentlemen were followed by Mr. E. C. Peters, of the Atlanta street railway company, and then the hands began in earnest work on Atlanta's first paved street.

The Small-Pox. The small pox news for yesterday is given in the official report of the board of health, published below.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH OF THE CITY OF ATLANTA, GA., JUNE 3, 1882.—How James W. English, Mayor, has been the cause of small pox developed in the city within the last twenty-four hours—since date of last report:

White 0 Colored 0 Total 0

These cases—San Branan, Zach Stewart and Ned Harris all colored—lived in the same house and belonged to the same family. They were removed to the hospital to-day from their place of abode. In the first ward, near the hospital, are three cases of Hunter and Rhodes' streets and between Elbert street and the railroad. They were followed by one employed as laborer on the Georgia and Cincinnati railroad. Respectfully, W. S. ARMSTRONG, M.D., President. JAMES B. BAIRD, M.D., Secretary. Attest: J. W. ENGLISH, Mayor.

A Few Covington Dogs. Ripe and luscious "cling stone" peaches made their appearance in our market to-day. Wheat harvesting is progressing satisfactorily. The crop is very fine. The dairy business is attracting considerable attention in this section, and it will not be long before dairy farms will be as common as cotton patches are now. The creamery butter, made at the now famous Colorado dairy ranch, in Covington, is the finest ever seen in this market, and is creating a boom for the dairy business.

Our schools will close their spring term in a few weeks, without the usual "commencement" exercises. This is a right move. We have quite a boom in the building, and more new houses are now going up than was ever known here at one time.

A large, first-class steam flouring mill will be commenced at the depot in a short while. The contract for Uncle Jim Anderson's "star building" has been let, and work will be commenced at once. It will contain nine rooms, and will cost about $10,000. It will be the finest brick block ever erected in Covington.

The political situation here is very quiet. The people are for Mr. Stephens' nomination for governor, and this county will no doubt send up a solid delegation for the great commoner. Long may he live.

Atlanta Female Institute. Mrs. Ballard will have her friends and patrons to gather during the coming week, on the building on Peachtree street, to witness the following programme to the ladies exercises of the Atlanta female university for 1881-82.

Tuesday evening, June 5. Solrice Franca. Wednesday evening, June 6. Solrice Franca. Thursday evening, June 7. Solrice Franca.

Location. Music. Address by Dr. Thomas S. Powell. Exercises commence at 8:30. The present term has been a very prosperous one, and this institute will continue to be the pride of our city.

SUCH BARGAINS

AS THE FOLLOWING DEAL BLOWS TO

COMPETITION

THAT ARE PARALYZING.

JOHN RYAN'S

Buyer in New York sends out 100 cases of goods from the recent sales of

MESSRS. A. T. STEWART & CO

bought at prices that have demoralized prices in New York, and will be sold at such prices as will completely turn into ridicule any attempt to compete with them here.

NOTICE, LADIES, IF YOU PLEASE.

I intend selling this entire shipment in one day if possible and more besides. I simply ask of you to call to-morrow without fail and see the bargains that will be offered. Don't put it off as these goods will not stop in the house long at the price, and if you should wait a day or so you will be disappointed. See the following. Have you ever heard or read of

PRICES TO EQUAL THEM!

3 cases beautiful Lawns at 3 1/2 c, worth 7c.
15 cases Lace Bunting, all colors, at 6 1/2 c, worth 15c.
12 cases Black Grenadines at 6 1/2 c, cheap at 25c.
9 cases Ladies' Gauze Vests at 25c. Same goods sold elsewhere in this city at 50c and 60 cents.

11 cases Piques at 10 cents, worth 25c.

JOHN RYAN'S

To the People of North Georgia.

We, the undersigned, business men of Atlanta, recently visited, by request of Rev. Sam P. Jones, Agent, the Orphan's Home, located at Decatur, Ga., and the purpose of a fair and full examination into its merits. And after a pleasant day spent at this institution, we are glad of the opportunity of saying to the public that we found that its present management to be efficient and economical, and that a little more liberality on the part of the public would make this institution that would be an honor to North Georgia and a blessing to the people. It is located in a beautiful spot, a few miles from Decatur, and there are attached 212 acres of good farming land. We were delighted with the land and growing crops. The children are under fine moral, intellectual and physical training. It is not only a place where the children are well cared for, but it is a place where the children are well educated. We, therefore, as business men, after a satisfactory knowledge of this Home and its management, commend the enterprise, and will give what we can, and do all we can for its maintenance.

Rev. Sam P. Jones, the agent, will no doubt this year relieve the Home of all financial embarrassments. His untiring efforts to wind up his business, and his liberal response from our people.

Extra preparations are being made for the opening of the season at Calais, Maine. Special railroad rates have been secured, and a large attendance is expected. The grounds and buildings will be illuminated with Chinese lanterns, and every effort made to make the affair a brilliant success.

IN CONSEQUENCE OF THE DEATH OF MY father, it becomes necessary to wind up his business, and the business of A. O. M. Gay & Co. From this date, therefore, I will offer the entire stock of
